Monday night Mr. W. S. Moore entertained at a delightful cuchre party in honor of Mrs. Moore, and fifty guests enjoyed their hospitality. Miss Jennie Day Proudfit won the first gentlemen's prize and Mrs. Caldwell the first gentlemen's prize and Mrs. Caldwell the consolution.

Tuesday morning Mrs. Thomas N. Jones gave a bridge party, the last of the senson, her prizes, being won by Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Proudfit.

Tuesday evening a unique and delightful party was given by the guests of the hotel in honor of Mrs. Thomas N. Jones, of Isle of Wight, and Mrs. Charles W. Warren, of Surry, whose departure next day was a distinct loss to the social life of the springs. This compriment took the form of a card party, and everyone entered into it with heartiness and enthusiasm. At the close these ladies wage presented with handsome pearl pins as some slight token of the appreciation of the Yellow Sulphur cloony of their generous contribution towards the pleasure of the summer and their charming hospitality, Mrs. T. N. Jones responded in a grateful speech, and Mrs. A. T. Henley was awarded the prize for the highest number of games won during the evening.

THE BRANDON, September 9.—Th

golden September days are here; the road sides are gay with autumn's dress-tinted flowers, and a blue vell hangs over the distant mountains. Many new arrivals keep Hotel Brandon bright, though good byes have been exchanged with favorite guests,

The past week witnessed one of the most brilliant entertainments of the season, a farewell six-hand, progressive euchre purty, given by Mrs. Richard Mc-liwaine, of Norfolk, to Mrs. W. F. Chalmers, of Richmond. The parlor was beautifully decorated in goldenrod and asters, and autumn leaves. The ladies were exquisitely gowned. New York, to spend September in the mountains, under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Phil. Brown. The young ladies have just returned from some months of European travel with their mother, Mrs. McAlister, and have spent several scasons here, having first come in "plunfores" and short—very short—dresses. They are attractive girls, of the handsome brunette type:

Among the inte arrivals, are sisters, three—Mrs. Percy. Mrs. Jackson, and Mrs. Mound—from Greenville, Miss., who spent the early summer in the mountains of North Carolina. The ladies are accompanied by Mr. Mound, Mr. W. A. Percy. Mrs. Percy's son, a young student of rare attainments, who, at eighteen years of age, graduated at the University of the South. Sewance.
